

Does your child or student have issues that involve...

- Organization in the classroom, with homework and long term assignments?
- Planning and decision making?
- Impulsivity and regulating behavioral responses?

If so, learn how to help them by attending a presentation on:

Executive Functioning Strategies for Use at School and Home

Sarah Rozehnal-Ward, M.S., CCC/SLP, Speech and Language Pathologist

A workshop sponsored by SEACOM (Special Education Advisory Council of Marblehead)

Monday November 5, 2007, 7:00-8:30pm

Marblehead Veterans Middle School Library, 2nd Floor

217 Pleasant Street, Marblehead, MA

Ms. Ward will present comprehensive and specific strategies to promote the development of executive function skills in students. These strategies for organization and homework will empower you to increase your child's independent ability to manage and organize their time, space and materials.

Sarah is the past President of the Massachusetts Brain Injury Association, is a member of the Massachusetts Acquired Brain Injury Advisory Board, the National Institutes of Health Model Systems Traumatic Brain Injury Grant Advisory Board and is a member of the American Speech and Language Hearing Association. She holds a guest faculty appointment at the Massachusetts General Hospital Institute of Health Professions where she provides instruction to graduate level students in the assessment techniques, development of therapeutic objectives, and intervention strategies for individuals with traumatic brain injury. Sarah is dedicated to developing innovative treatment strategies and educating the community to understand, care for and celebrate the learning and behavioral based differences in individuals with brain based learning differences.

A $5 donation is requested the evening of the event.
