

SEACOM (Special Education Advisory Council of Marblehead)
announces the following workshop:

An IEP for My Child

Featured Speaker: Jennifer Perlitch, The Federation for Children with Special Needs

Monday, February 11, 2008 7:00-8:30pm

Marblehead Veterans Middle School Library Project Room, 2nd Floor
217 Pleasant Street, Marblehead, MA

Every child with a disability who receives special education services must have an Individual Education Program (IEP). This workshop takes parents step-by-step through the development of the IEP including how to articulate a Vision, using evaluations to write annual measurable goals and how to measure their child's progress.

Please mark your calendars with the following dates of the remaining SEACOM spring 2008 parent workshop schedule:

- Monday, March 10: Penny Prather, Ph.D., clinical and research neuropsychologist – Neuropsychological Evaluations for Your Child; why have one, what they consist of, how to interpret the results.
- Monday, April 14: Clare Vann, Special Education Attorney - How to Communicate Positively with Public School Personnel And How to Document Your Communications.
- Monday, May 12: Topic to be announced.

SEACOM is a state mandated parent volunteer organization that acts as a resource and advisor to parents of children with special needs and the Marblehead Public Schools. We are committed to forming a fun, supportive, and educational group. For more information about SEACOM, visit our website at www.seacomonline.org.
